

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS WIMBLEDON 2010

After a nail biting final against Andy Roddick, the 2009 Championships saw Roger Federer crowned champion, earning his record-breaking 15th grand slam title. Serena Williams beat older sister, Venus in another all-American, all-Venus women's singles final.

The 2009 Championships, Wimbledon saw a new retractable roof on Centre Court, allowing uninterrupted play, come rain or shine. The exclusive range of award-winning Wimbledon hospitality allows you to perfectly match your corporate needs, whilst delivering a wonderful day at The Championships. Wimbledon attracts a worldwide audience of hundreds of millions but only a few are privileged enough to actually be there.

Centre Court Reserved - 10% discount off a table of 10 in the first week of the Championships (21st – 26th June)

Official court ticket

Champagne reception

Complimentary bar, including champagne

3-course à la carte lunch, with a choice of specially selected wines

Traditional Wimbledon afternoon tea with strawberries and cream

Guest speakers including journalists and tennis legends

Plasma television screens to keep guests informed of play

Garden area to relax and unwind

Air-conditioning

Official Wimbledon programme

Newspapers available upon request

Business Lounge including wireless internet access

Commemorative VIP pass and documentation

Shuttle bus to and from Southfields Tube Station

Monday 21 June - £850 Inc VAT per person

Tuesday 22 June - £750 Inc VAT per person

Wednesday 23 June - £850 Inc VAT per person

Thursday 24 June - £850 Inc VAT per person

Friday 25 June - £1250 Inc VAT per person

Saturday 26 June - £850 Inc VAT per person

Our supplier is the official hospitality agent for the Wimbledon Tennis Finals and our special offer is open to IDEAS clients only.